

CAMP

* CAMP FAMILY HISTORY ****

In 1605 one Thomas Campe, a native of Nasing, County Essex, yeoman, married Joane, daughter of Richard Hawkenett, of London, a weaver. According to the history, one Thomas Campe came to America in 1635 and settled in Gloucester County, Virginia. Beyond a doubt it was this same Thomas Campe mentioned above.

One Thomas Camp (notice the e dropped from Campe) of Virginia, who was born in 1691 and who no doubt was a grand-son of the immigrant by the same name, was married in the early eighteenth century to a Miss Marshall, who gave him three sons, Thomas, John, and Marshall. Of these John and Marshall, although of advanced age, served in the Revolutionary war. Thomas, the eldest son, born 1717, was the father of 24 children, 11 boys and 1 girl by each of 2 wives. Descendants of this family are known as, "Coming from one of the famous 24". It appears from the history that he raised the first family in Virginia and the second in North Carolina. In the first family, the 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th children were named, John, Thomas, Nathan and Benjamin. Benjamin had sons, Joseph (who married his second cousin, Elizabeth Camp), and John. Joseph was the father of Rev. Joseph Camp, born August 2, 1811, in Jackson County, Georgia. Today you will find plenty of Camps in Georgia.

This Nathan is beyond a doubt the one that married Winifred McLendon and had 2 sons and a daughter; Benjamin Franklin, who never married, Nancy who married one Dan Abbott, and Richmond Harris, born March 7, 1816, and who when he was about 19 years of age, went with his mother, from Franklin County, Tenn., to Mississippi and helped to build the first house to be built in Aberdeen, Miss. He was later married to Cynthia Caroline Phillips, September 17, 1844 and settled in Lauderdale County, Miss. He died there March 12, 1894. From this marriage there were 16 children, 11 boys and 5 girls. Three of the boys and 1 girl died young. The other 12 children married and some of them raised large families as shown on the lists attached.

Lauderdale County was the home of the most of this family and still is home of several of the descendants. Although several have settled in various places.

Around 1790, one John Irvin married Amy Berryman, to them among maybe others was a daughter born, by name of Cinderella, who married one Thomas Phillips and to them was born among others, a daughter by the name Cynthia Caroline, who was married to the Richmond Harris Camp mentioned in above history, September 17, 1844.

Richmond Monroe Camp, son of Richmond Harris Camp, born April 16, 1847, served in the Confederate Army and was wounded during the Battle of Franklin, Tenn., November 30, 1864. Though wounded he lived to the ripe age of 88, having died in Lauderdale County, March 6, 1935. Those serving in the World War of 1917 were, Jesse Berryman Camp, born October 25, 1887, McGrady Camp, born November 10, 1895, sons of Jesse Vulcanon Camp and Quintus E. Camp, born May 24, 1896, son of Alonzo Berryman Camp. Jesse Berryman Camp was killed in action, October 16, 1918, in France and his body still rests there.

From here is a list, beginning with marriage of Richmond Harris Camp and Cynthia Caroline Phillips, giving dates of birth, marriages and deaths. I have made a great effort to make this as complete and as correct as possible. Hope every one will overlook mistakes and some omissions.
